In between classes, it sounds as if the music room is the place to release all pent-up enthusiasm--trumpets blow, drums boom & high C's are sounded. Then, the bell rings and the musical ability of the youths of Ashley blends into one harmonious whole--

When the bell rings, the music room will have an entirely different atmosphere.

Inpromptu song fests are given as much serious attention as concerts.

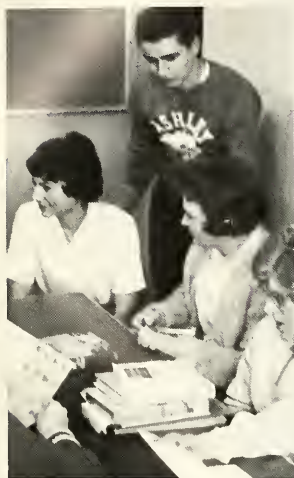

WE PRACTICE DEMOCRACY

On November 3, a mock election was held for grades 7-12. 92.4% of the students registered, and 97.4% of that per cent voted. It was a Democratic landslide, and Johnson defeated Goldwater 182-74.

CONVOCATIONS— RELAXATION FROM STUDIES

Shown at the left is Mr. Charles King, an accomplished vocalist, who entertained our students with his program, "Music in the Air."

Shown at the right is Mr. Ray Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan gave us an interesting talk on the history of American firearms.

FHA DEVELOPS SOCIAL LIFE

The Future Homemakers of America have a varied and interesting program.

During the Christmas season they visited the county home. In March they sponsored, jointly with the FFA, a hootenanny and dance. The theme for this was "Down Singing River." The Yeomen, as well as local talent, sang at this function. On March 27th a Ma-Pa-Me night was held. It was a potluck supper. Miss Irene Myers, General Electric's supervisor of Women's Division, was the speaker. The FHA also enjoyed attending the district meetings.

FFA ENJOYS CANADIAN TRIP

The Ashley members of Future Farmers of America earn points to make a trip to Canada. The boys earn this trip by selling pop at ball games, raising a pig, working on the sorghum plot, or selling jello and rat bait. In the soil-judging contest they ranked 2nd in the county. Stanley Deetz came in 3rd in a speech and essay contest.

The FFA invited the FHA to help them sponsor the hootenanny. The Future Farmers also enjoy their yearly spring banquet.

NEW YORK

Forty enthusiastic seniors and their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Weimer, left for Washington, D.C., New York City, the World's Fair, and Philadelphia, as well as Hershey, Pennsylvania, on Saturday, April 24th. The class took a Miller tour. They rode in style--a brand new Continental Trailways bus! Bob White was the bus driver and Mrs. Vivian Hoover was the charming guide. The seniors enjoyed the trip very much--everything from the sight-seeing trips to the free time to the informal chats in the bus.

 NEWNAM TIRE SERVICE

Mr. John Turner, yearbook sponsor, Sharon Duncan, associated editor, and Jean Wolfe, editor, are looking over the last layout of the yearbook.

The Ace for 1965 has many additions and new features. The Seniors have worked hard to make this the best yearbook ever published at A.H.S. Many thanks go to the typing II class for all the typing they have done and to Bob Ely and Doug Worthington for all the pictures they have taken. The Senior class deserves much credit for all the work they have done in making this book possible. The yearbook is being published by the American Yearbook Company. Pictures are by Robert's Studio of Ft. Wayne.

THE ACE GETS A FACE— LIFTING

Jean, Dale, Anna, and LaDonna discuss layout and copy arrangements.

Marie Buchs, business manager, and LaDonna Gramling work hard on advertising.

Carol Pentecost is busy correcting errors.
